Dear Sir or Madam,

Are there people in your community who want to study traditional northwest coast art? Do you know of artists in your community who wish to elevate their skills and learn from master Indigenous artists? The Freda Diesing School of Northwest Coast Art at Cost Mountain College is now accepting applications for Fall 2021.

The Freda Diesing School of Northwest Coast Art is located in Terrace, BC, and is the only school of its kind in Canada. Focusing on traditional Indigenous Northwest Coast Art and taught by world-renowned artists. The programs we offer give students a unique opportunity to connect culture to education.

By clicking on the links below you can learn more about the First Nations Fine Arts programs we offer as well as how to register. To really see what the Freda Diesing School of Northwest Coast Art is all about you can watch our videos on our YouTube channel.
